Proposed Semester for Colloquium

Have you been granted matching funds before?

This funding is intended to provide up to $500 in matching funds to cover the costs of travel and/or accommodation incurred while a guest speaker is visiting UNBC to give a presentation as part of the NRESI Colloquium Series. There will normally be one award for each semester: Fall (September to December) and Winter (January to April). The NRESI awards are intended for potential speakers outside of UNBC and the Prince George area who would not otherwise be able travel to UNBC to give a presentation due to costs. They are not intended for people who might otherwise be traveling to UNBC for other activities (such as external examiners, research colleagues, exchange students and researchers etc), nor are they intended as honorariums for speakers. Sources of matching funds may include, research grants, other Programs or Institutes within UNBC, or external funds. Applicants must identify confirmed matching funds when submitting an application and no commitment can be made on the part of NRESI before the application has been approved.   Applications can be submitted at any time, but must be before the deadlines of September 15th (for presentations in the Fall semester) and January 15th (for presentations in the Winter semester).
